The Senior Surgeon says in para 5 of his letter that if the whole period of absence of Mr Sankaran Gr, viz, deputation & the period of leave without allowance was both reckoned as grant of increments in his grade, he would be drawing Rs 180 on the date of rejoining (with an increment of pay raising it to Rs 170 from 11.10.1937 & that the personal allowance was granted him, he would have been entitled to

Rs 170 + 50 PA from 11.10.37 & so on or Rs 200 + 20 from 11.10.1940, or Rs 190 + 30 from 11.10.1939

The S.S. however says that this does not appear admissible & that as the appointment held by the doctor was in the nature of a post-graduate study it would be equitable to treat his case liberally.

The fact that his work has been well spoken of by his superiors & recommended but, as a special case, his pay may be fixed at Rs 190 + Rs 30 P.A. from

Subd. The S.S. states that Mr. A.C. Shanbaga Iyer is drawing Rs 180 plus 20 P.A.A. from 14.4.40 and that 14.4.38 was a clerical error. He has explained that the date 11.10.37 represents the date on which Mr. T.L. Narasimha Pandit the officer who was below him was promoted to Rs 170 and this promotion to the scale of Rs 170, until then also accrued to Mr. Shanbaga Iyer but for the break occasioned by his resignation (Refee: para 8 supra - Orders Scale - 2 yrs 1y)

B. K. NARAYANA RAO, Esq., B.A., M.B.C.M., M.R.C.S., (Eng.). D.P.H. D.O. (Oxon.),
Senior Surgeon with the Government of H. H. the Maharaja of Mysore.

To

The Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
Development Department, Bangalore.

Sir,

I have the honor to submit, in original, a representation from Dr.A.C.Sankar Iyer, Assistant Surgeon, Victoria Hospital, for favour of consideration and orders.

2. Dr.Sankara Iyer was on deputation for study at Bombay from 11-7-1934 to 11-1-1936. During this time, he was given his pay and allowances of Rs 2 per day, and the promotions due to him were also allowed.

3. He resigned his appointment from 11-1-1936 and joined service in the K.E.M. Hospital, belonging to the Municipal Corporation of Bombay. After much correspondemce, he was informed that his resignation could not be accpeted unless he paid back moneys received by him, for study. Dr. Sankara Iyer informs me that he did not receive proper advice about the return of funds when he proposed resigning and if he knew that Government would insist on such retur he would hot have resigned. Dr.Sankara Iyer was in this K.E.M. Hospital service from 11-1-1936 till he rejoined his post here on 14-4-1937, which was ordered by Government.

4. In ordering his rejoining, Government were pleased to give Dr.Sankara Iyer the rank and pay he would have had here had he continued in service all along and further gave him an absorbable personal allowance of Rs 50. Thus on the day of his rejoining, he got Rs 150 pay plus Rs 50 P.A. and subsequently he has been given due increments. From 14-4-1938, he is drawing Rs 180 plus 20 P.A.A.

5. If the period between the resignation and rejoining which was ordered to be treated as leave without allowances were also consider considered as really an extension of studying period and if the whole period of his absence i.e., deputation period and the period of leave without allowances were both considered for giving increments in the grade, Dr.Sankara Iyer would have been drawing Rs 160 on the date of rejoining (with an increment of pay to Rs 170 due from 11-10-1937) and if the Personal absorbable allowance was granted then(i.e., on 11-10-1937), he would have been entitled to pay and allowance as detailed below:-

Rs 170 plus Rs 50	from 11-10-1937
Rs 180 plus Rs 40	from 11-10-1938
Rs 190 plus Rs 30	from 11-10-1939
Rs 200 plus Rs 20	from 11-10-1940

as against Rs 180 plus 20 now being drawn by him.

6. This does not of course appear to be admissible under the rules, but the fact that he held an appointment in Bombay was really in the nature of post-graduate further study and practical laboratory experience which has made him an officer of greater value to the Mysore service. In view of this, I feel, it would be equitable to treat his case somewhat leniently. Subsequent to his rejoining, his work has been very good and well spoken off by all his superior officers and I have found him a keen, hard-working and efficient officer.

7. In these circumstances, I recommend that the pay and allowance of Dr.Sankara Iyer may be ordered to be Rs 190 plus Rs 30 P.A.M. from 11-10-1939, but with no retrospective effect. His present relative position will remain the same as it is undesirable to allow any supersession over others.

To

The Senior Surgeon,

Through

The Medical Officer,

Victoria Hospital,

Bangalore.

Sir,

Adverting to the Senior Surgeon's order No. G.1537-37 dated the 18th December 1936, permitting me to draw a pay of Rs 150/- as temporary Assistant Surgeon, 2nd class, (which is noted to be the pay I would have drawn if I had continued in service) and in continuation of my previous application dated 3-3-1939, I beg to bring to your kind notice that Mr. B. Narayana Rao, B.Sc., M.B.B.S, who entered service just about six weeks earlier than myself, ranks above me in the Civil List with a difference of Rs 20/- in the grade pay, equivalent to two annual increments.

Mr. T.R. Narasimha Pandit, who is junior to me by six weeks and is accordingly placed below me in the list nevertheless draws a higher grade pay equal to that of Mr. B. Narayana Rao. So does Mr. S.R. Gorur, although he occupies the third lower place from me in the list. In respect of actual grade pay I stand pushed down to the level of Mr. N.C. Ananthakrishnamacharlu, who is junior to me by three places. Thus I am suffering a grave handicap which sets back my service and my prospects by two years.

I feel profoundly grateful for the selection graciously extended and the facilities granted to me for the Special study ordered by Government in the interests of service in G.O. No. G. 8444-5 Med. 240-38-2 dated the the 21st/22nd June 1934. I completed the course and took the M.D. Degree of the Bombay University with distinction. As regards my work, I am content to leave its appraisal to my superior officers.

I realise, Sir, that it may not be feasible to accord a higher rank than that now actually assigned to me but what I would earnestly pray for is the equalisation of my prospects by enhancing my grade pay to the level of that of the two officers immediately junior to me. I beg that as from the date I rejoined duty on 14-4-1937, I may be placed on a starting pay of Rs 170/- and that the absorbable allowance of Rs 50/-, which was granted in view of my special qualification, may be reckoned as starting with this revised pay. This gracious act would not only restore and stabilise my legitimate prospects, relatively with my juniors, but also would be a source of great encouragement to me and my work.

Soliciting early favourable orders.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

26. 4. 40

G. C. Sankara Rao
Assistant Surgeon.

Submitted for favourable consideration.

He possesses a qualification entitling him to an absorbable allowance of atleast Rs.75/- equivalent of the M.R.C.P. His prayer is very reasonable and if granted would have the effect of raising his present allowance of Rs.75/-.
